

Bruce Gold clean clever comedy & Magic

He's made Oprah laugh, amazed millions on television and he performs live for more than 50,000 people every year, but you may remember him from his starring role in an award winning "got milk?" television commercial. For two decades, the sound of laughter has followed Bruce from the small screen to center stage and around the world. Now, he's the "gold standard" in corporate entertainment, where he leaves smiles on the faces of audiences and clients alike.

"Bruce Gold is a funny man of considerable charm!"
Variety

Ever had your mind read by a Psychic Toaster? It's just one of the truly novel tricks Bruce has up his sleeve. Of course, the real magic is in Bruce himself and his ability to captivate an audience with his hysterical combination of humor & hocus-pocus. Bruce's stand-up comedy stands up on it's own and his wit and wizardry draws cheers from audiences and peers.

Major corporations have discovered Bruce is the secret to memorable meetings, amusing events and exceptional after dinner entertainment. As a keynote speaker, Bruce's magic touch makes his message extraordinarily entertaining.
